Generator – Popular Music Development Agency [For NE England LAs only?]

Generator, based in Newcastle Upon Tyne is the North's popular music development agency. It was set up as a voluntary organisation in the early 1990's with the aim of developing a healthier and more sustainable popular music industry in the North East and Cumbria. In particular, it seeks to help music business as well as musicians and songwriters of all ages to develop their careers and music through the provision of ongoing support, advice, events/activities, and educational work. Over the last three years has now expanded throughout England offering networking opportunities for those wishing to increase their skills in the grass roots music industry and producing a national promoter development scheme for the Arts Council.
