

Commercially Sensitive/Confidential Material

Freedom of Information Act 2000 & Environmental Information Regulations 2004

This form should be submitted with your application to indicate material you consider to be commercially sensitive, confidential and/or otherwise non-disclosable into the public domain.

North Devon Council may be obliged to disclose information relating to your application should a request under FOI or EIR be received. Please complete details below of any information which you are submitting to the Council and which you consider to be confidential, commercially sensitive and/or which should otherwise not be disclosed to the public domain in respect of your application.

Applicant name and contact details
Postcode: _____
Daytime telephone number(s): _____
Email address: _____

Site address
Postcode: _____

Document / Information	Page No.	Reason for non-disclosure and what harm would disclosure cause	Duration of confidentiality

You acknowledge that this form is of indicative value only and North Devon Council may be obliged to disclose the information that you have listed on this schedule pursuant to a request under FOI or EIR. North Devon Council will take account of the above and consider your views, however the Council will make the final decision as to whether the information should be disclosed or not.