The Broomhill Farm Company is our labour of love, rooted in the heart of North Devon. On their small farm, they grow, harvest, and craft everything by hand, includng alcohol and non-alcoholic offerings. Currently they press cider, brew beer and now have a fledgling vineyard, creating truly limited, seasonal products that celebrate the land they nurture. Every bottle reflects their commitment to sustainability and authenticity. With a solar-powered water filtration system, farm-grown ingredients, and dedication to a “farm grown, farm made” ethos, they ensure every product is a genuine taste of their home in North Devon.

The Bootneck Brewery arm of this operation handles their production of beers. Overseen by a Royal Marines veteran, no corners are cut, and every detail is "squared away". Bootneck Brewery supports former service personnel through their commitment to service charities.

The purpose of this application is to give the business a route to market through a pick, pack and dispatch operation which will enable online sales through their website. No on sales, consumption or regulated entertainment is entailed.

If 5,000 or more people are expected to attend the premises at any one time, state the number expected to attend

LICENSING OBJECTIVES

Describe the steps you intend to take to promote the four licensing objectives:

a) General – all four licensing objectives (b,c,d,e)

List here steps you will take to promote all four licensing objectives together.

Overview: This application has been completed with times and days open to the public, simply because this Gov.Uk form requires it. However the description on p5 is clear - in that these premises will never be open to the public.

Staff Training:

All staff involved in the sale of alcohol or supply of alcohol shall receive induction and/or refresher training (at least annually) commensurate with their role and responsibilities in relation to the sale of alcohol and the times and conditions of the premises licence.

Training shall include Challenge 25, the premises licence hours and conditions, and the requirement and process for completing both the incident log and refusal log (detailed below).

Training will be documented, kept at the premises for at least 12 months from the last entry, and made available to the Police and/or Local Authority upon request.

Alcohol Off Sales:

Alcohol may only be provided in sealed containers by way of delivery.

b) The prevention of crime and disorder

Refusal Log:

There shall be a register for the recording of all alcohol sale refusals, including attempted under-age sales, proxy sales and refusals to those who appear intoxicated.

Details to be recorded shall include the date, time, name (if known), physical description of the person, the reason for the refusal, names of staff and/or delivery driver involved.

Any identification document coming into the possession of a member of delivery staff shall be recorded in the register, including the name of the person/name on the identification document.

Refusal records, written or electronic, shall be available for inspection by any authorised officer of the responsible authorities and shall be securely retained by the licence holder for a for a period of 12 months from the date of the last entry.

Incident Log:

An incident log shall be maintained on the premises to record all incidents and accidents.

Records should include occurrences of: anti-social behaviour experienced by delivery staff, welfare, and/or safeguarding concerns/matters.

The records shall include the date, time, and location of the incident; nature of the incident; name and contact details of all people involved, and any crime number and details of police officers attending.

Incident and accident records may be kept in a bound register with consecutively numbered pages or electronically on a secure digital system.

The records shall be available for inspection by any authorised officer of the responsible authorities and shall be securely retained by the licence holder for a period of 12 months after the last entry.

c) Public safety

The premises licence holder shall hold a current Fire Risk Assessment which shall be available for inspection by any authorised officer.

d) The prevention of public nuisance

No promotional social media communication may be carried on for the purpose of encouraging the sale or supply of alcohol at the premises or in relation to the business operation, which can reasonably be considered to condone, encourage or glamorise antisocial behaviour or to refer to the effects of drunkenness in any favourable manner.

Deliveries:

Delivery drivers shall conduct the delivery in a manner that will not cause a noise disturbance to the occupiers of any residential properties surrounding the delivery address. This includes the avoidance of slamming doors, playing loud music, shouting, over-revving engines and sounding horns to signal their arrival.

The driver shall turn the engine off immediately upon arrival at the delivery address and will park considerately without causing any obstruction to the highway.

All deliveries of alcohol shall only be delivered to a premises address with a valid postcode and will only be delivered directly to that property.

Customers must be instructed when placing the order that they will not be able to collect the order from the vehicle. All deliveries must be made directly to the property address and customers will not be permitted to take orders from the vehicle.

e) The protection of children from harm

Age Verification Scheme – Challenge 25:

A challenge 25 age verification scheme will operate whereby any person who appears to be under 25 years of age, and unknown to the staff member or delivery driver as a person over 18 years of age, shall not be sold or supplied alcohol unless they provide identification to prove they are over 18 years of age.

Acceptable forms of identification will be a valid passport, a valid photo ID driving license or a valid proof of age scheme card with the PASS approved hologram.

Alcohol Deliveries:

Where purchases can be made online, the website must state:

- It is an offence to sell or supply alcohol to a person under 18 years of age,
- Satisfactory photographic ID may be required at the time of delivery,
- Delivery may only be made in person to the intended recipient, and
- Failure to provide satisfactory ID will result in the retention of the delivery.

Challenge 25:

All people and staff involved in the delivery of alcohol, including the premises licence holder/designated premises supervisor, employees, or third-party couriers, must be satisfied that the person to whom an order containing alcohol is being delivered is 18 years or over.

To ensure that persons purchasing alcohol via the on-line platform are over the age of 18, the company shall ensure that customers are aware that proof of ID will be a condition of sale and must be provided prior to receipt of any alcohol.

Delivery drivers will be instructed to ensure that the end consumer is the same individual that placed the order or no delivery shall take place.

If acceptable photographic age verification documents cannot be produced on request, the delivery shall be refused, and alcohol returned to the licensed premises.

The premises licence holder will ensure that a sticker is applied to all consignments of alcohol stating "Note to delivery service: this package contains age restricted products. Ensure recipient is over 18" (or similar wording to the same effect).

Deliveries shall only be made to the address indicated on the order.

Deliveries must be handed to the addressee/recipient and not left in a safe place for later collection.

Deliveries shall only to be made to bona fide business/commercial addresses or private residences and not to any public/open spaces (e.g. car parks, street corners, bus stops, public parks).

Deliveries shall be refused to any person who is, or who appears to be intoxicated by through alcohol or drugs, in which case the alcohol shall be returned to the licensed premises.

The licence holder/designated premises supervisor shall ensure that only the alcohol items specified on orders processed for despatch are loaded onto delivery vehicles, and no surplus stock shall be carried on vehicles.

Where third-party couriers are used to provide the delivery of orders containing alcohol, the premises licence holder/designated premises supervisor shall have a contractual arrangement with each third party to be satisfied that the promotion of the licensing objectives and terms of the premises licence are complied with at all times, with particular attention to the point of delivery.

The premises licence holder shall keep records of or have access to all alcohol orders.

For each order containing alcohol, records shall include:

- a. the name and address of person making the order
- b. age verification at the point of order (if necessary)
- c. any refusals made at the point of order
- d. the date and time of the despatch
- e. details of the delivery provider/driver
- f. the date and time of delivery
- g. name and date of birth of recipient (where necessary)
- h. the full postal delivery address
- i. detail of identification/proof of age documents received (if required)
- j. details of any refusals at the point of delivery including reasons.

Records shall be retained by the Licence-Holder for a period of 12 months and be produced on request for inspection by a police officer or an authorised person of the licensing authority.

NOTES ON DEMONSTRATING ENTITLEMENT TO WORK IN THE UK

Entitlement to work/immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:

A licence may not be held by an individual or an individual in a partnership who is resident in the UK who:

- does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or
- is subject to a condition preventing him or her from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

Any premises licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have an entitlement to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. They do this in one of two ways: 1) by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the documents listed below (which do not need to be certified), or 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

Documents which demonstrate entitlement to work in the UK

- An expired or current passport showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a British citizen or a citizen of the UK and Colonies having the right of abode in the UK [please see note below about which sections of the passport to copy].
- An expired or current passport or national identity card showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Registration Certificate or document certifying permanent residence issued by the Home Office to a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Permanent Residence Card issued by the Home Office to the family member of a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder indicating that the person named is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is exempt from immigration control, is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, has the right of abode in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- A current Immigration Status Document issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK or has no time limit on their stay in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man or Ireland when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A certificate of registration or naturalisation as a British citizen, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.

- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is allowed to stay in the UK and is currently allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.
- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder which indicates that the named person can currently stay in the UK and is allowed to work relation to the carrying on of a licensable activity.
- A current Residence Card issued by the Home Office to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights or residence.
- A current Immigration Status Document containing a photograph issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person may stay in the UK, and is allowed to work and is not subject to a condition preventing the holder from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A Certificate of Application, less than 6 months old, issued by the Home Office under regulation 18(3) or 20(2) of the Immigration (European Economic Area) Regulations 2016, to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence.
- Reasonable evidence that the person has an outstanding application to vary their permission to be in the UK with the Home Office such as the Home Office acknowledgement letter or proof of postage evidence, or reasonable evidence that the person has an appeal or administrative review pending on an immigration decision, such as an appeal or administrative review reference number.
- Reasonable evidence that a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence in exercising treaty rights in the UK including:-
 - evidence of the applicant's own identity – such as a passport,
 - evidence of their relationship with the European Economic Area family member – e.g. a marriage certificate, civil partnership certificate or birth certificate, and
 - evidence that the European Economic Area national has a right of permanent residence in the UK or is one of the following if they have been in the UK for more than 3 months:
 - (i) working e.g. employment contract, wage slips, letter from the employer,
 - (ii) self-employed e.g. contracts, invoices, or audited accounts with a bank,
 - (iii) studying e.g. letter from the school, college or university and evidence of sufficient funds; or
 - (iv) self-sufficient e.g. bank statements.

Family members of European Economic Area nationals who are studying or financially independent must also provide evidence that the European Economic Area national and any family members hold comprehensive sickness insurance in the UK. This can include a private medical insurance policy, an EHIC card or an S1, S2 or S3 form.

Original documents must not be sent to licensing authorities. If the document copied is a passport, a copy of the following pages should be provided:-

- (i) any page containing the holder's personal details including nationality;
- (ii) any page containing the holder's photograph;
- (iii) any page containing the holder's signature;
- (iv) any page containing the date of expiry; and
- (v) any page containing information indicating the holder has permission to enter or remain in the UK and is permitted to work.

If the document is not a passport, a copy of the whole document should be provided.

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copy documents as set out above.

NOTES ON REGULATED ENTERTAINMENT

In terms of specific regulated entertainments please note that:

- Plays: no licence is required for performances between 08:00 and 23.00 on any day, provided that the audience does not exceed 500.
- Films: no licence is required for 'not-for-profit' film exhibition held in community premises between 08.00 and 23.00 on any day provided that the audience does not exceed 500 and the organiser (a) gets consent to the screening from a person who is responsible for the premises; and (b) ensures that each such screening abides by age classification ratings.
- Indoor sporting events: no licence is required for performances between 08.00 and 23.00 on any day, provided that the audience does not exceed 1000.
- Boxing or Wrestling Entertainment: no licence is required for a contest, exhibition or display of Greco-Roman wrestling, or freestyle wrestling between 08.00 and 23.00 on any day, provided that the audience does not exceed 1000. Combined fighting sports – defined as a contest, exhibition or display which combines boxing or wrestling with one or more martial arts – are licensable as a boxing or wrestling entertainment rather than an indoor sporting event.
