

Georgeham Parish Neighbourhood Development Plan Referendum

Information Statement

About this statement

A neighbourhood planning referendum will be held for the Georgeham Parish Neighbourhood Development Plan on Wednesday 24th November 2021.

The question to be asked at the referendum will be:

“Do you want North Devon District Council to use the neighbourhood plan for Georgeham parish to help it decide planning applications in the neighbourhood area?”

The referendum area for the Neighbourhood Plan is the parish area of Georgeham (see map below).

You are entitled to vote in this referendum on Wednesday 24th November 2021 if:

- You are entitled to vote in a local government election in the referendum area; and
- Your qualifying address is in the referendum area. A person's qualifying address is, in relation to a person registered in the register of electors the address in respect of which they are entitled to be registered.

The referendum will be conducted in accordance with procedures similar to those used at local government elections.

Referendum Expenses

The Referendum expenses limit that will apply in relation to the Referendum is £2362 x 0.59p per elector. The number of persons entitled to vote in the Referendum is 1124.
